Amendments to the Agenda

No amendments.

Twinsburg City Schools superintendent Kathi Powers and School Board Vice President Tina Davis spoke about the upcoming renewal levy for Twinsburg City Schools. Ms. Davis asked for support for the levy to invest in the future of the children. Ms. Powers stated the 6.9 mill levy was first passed in May 1993. It is renewed every five years and will generate $5.2 million annually. Those funds go to support the staff and programs for the students. She appreciates the past support from Reminderville and is asking for that same support this year on Issue 7. Ms. Powers also thanked Mayor Alonso and Ms. Rockhill for use of the RAC to be used as a reunification location for school emergencies. There will be a full-scale drill at the high school and the RAC on October 5 which will be monitored and graded by ARMADA, a preparedness and protection group.
